

Oliver's story and Ollie's poem

English, 26.1.21
One day there was a boy that lived with his mitter shanty. He would always go out in the deep dark forest to see if he could find something.
One day he did it was a hoodie with a midnight blue hood and the rest was a dark shiny purple.
He took it off the ground and it's plus on. If ~~total~~ hold him to take it off to hell say no! The only time he took it off was when he went to bed. That is the magic starts. When he ~~is~~ woke up he saw a robin pixelated red on its wings and blue on its chest a parrot ~~it~~ with a faded grey and a little of black and red.
Then a golden glass and they were all a rush to behold. He then realised if they go they won't come back so he put them in cages. One day he had seen a n open it was guesses! He searched and searched searched and searched until... He found him in the highest branch of the highest tree.
He begged or begged and when he was back home the others were gone and as he suspected them birds were on the tallest tree too! He begged until he could hit anyone and then the birds were as as beautiful as ever as they flew in circle and then they knew what to do he ran back and set free ones that he already had. They to be free the jumper is still a mystery.

English ~~at~~ don't poem
Don't jump on the sofa,
Don't beat your lava,
Don't pick your nose,
Don't make a mess,
Don't eat with your hands,
And certainly don't eat with your mouth open.

Don't crash your car in a nest,
Don't do work on the six chest,
Don't tell me to stop,
Don't Do, do, do, take a rest.

Ollie – Wind in the Willows art and topic work

More Wind in the Willows work from Ollie

Sophie's literacy and poem

Literacy - friend or foe - Questions

The boys first impression of the air men was ok because one of them saved David's life.

The air men ask the boys for food and blankets.

David slowly changes his feelings about the German because after all they did save his life.

The air men wore blue uniforms.

The main dilemma was whether or not the boys were going to tell Mr Reynolds about meeting the air men or keep it a secret.

The boys disagreed about telling Mr Reynolds because Tucky think they should not because they saved David's life, but David thinks they should because he want revenge on the Germans for killing his father.

Going to school made it harder for them to keep the secret because everyone was laughing and that was a way to stop it.

Poem - Just Don't!

Don't eat on the bus otherwise you'll cause a po
Don't come home and strop and moan!
Don't lock yourself out otherwise you may po
Don't play on your phone otherwise mum will ~~scold~~ Don't stay up late or in the morning you'll be a state.

DON'T!

